Downtown for Good now underwritten - all come!

Great news! A number of individuals and groups in our church, along with the City of Tulsa, have stepped forward to underwrite the cost of materials and food for our "Downtown for Good" on October 24th and 25th! The only remaining cost is for T-shirts for those who want one.

All are invited to come be "downtown for good" on that Saturday. It will be a great opportunity to meet new friends, enjoy great fellowship, and experience the "natural high" that comes from helping others. There will be mission projects appropriate for all ages!

All who plan to participate are still encouraged to register this Sunday so that teams can be formed. Plan to meet in Community Hall on Saturday morning, October 24, to be divided into teams and sent out. Children under age eight will stay at the church, where they will create oatmeal breakfast packets for the Day Center for the Homeless, place mats for Methodist Manor, and care cards for our homebound.

Some projects will involve the morning only, while others will stretch into the afternoon. Projects for older children through adults will include working at the Eastern Oklahoma Food Bank, Emergency Infant Services, and Burroughs Elementary School.

To feel good for a lifetime, help others in need.

Some teams will be painting or cleaning for needy Tulsans, while others remove graffiti. The City of Tulsa will provide necessary paint, brushes, gloves and other supplies for that.

Several of our adult Sunday School classes are planning to work together as a class on a particular project. All classes are invited to so

From the Pastor's Study

Mouzon Biggs, Jr.

When the Disciples of Christ moved their Phillips Theological Seminary from Enid to Tulsa, half of their students were United Methodists. Phillips is fully approved by the University Senate of our denomination, but United Methodist candidates for ministry have to know those things that make us uniquely United Methodists - Methodist doctrine and Methodist polity (how we govern ourselves with bishops, district superintendents, general boards, etc.) The Tulsa District Superintendent agreed to teach our polity class at Phillips, and I was asked to teach our doctrine. I taught ten years, three hours per week, until a full-time United Methodist professor was hired.

Every semester I told my students, "The Board of Ordained Ministry varies the questions it asks candidates, but one question will be asked of every candidate. That question is 'Can you explain the statement that Jesus Christ is Lord?' They will expect you to explain each word precisely and in great detail."

Sunday's lection reminded me of those classes at Phillips and prompted the title of the sermon I will be writing this week, "FOUR WORDS - WRITE FIVE PAGES ON EACH ONE!"

Flu shots available this Sunday

Nurses from the Visiting Nurses Association are coming to Boston Avenue this Sunday, October 11, to give flu shots from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Aldersgate Room. Cost of the immunizations is $25 for flu shots (free for those with Medicare part B) and $55 for pneumonia shots. Payment is due at time of service.

New Covenant Class celebrates 60th Anniversary

Our New Covenant Class is celebrating its 60th Anniversary this Friday! Class members and friends will enjoy a luncheon at 1:00 p.m. in Community Hall.

The "Mr. and Mrs. Class," as they were first called, began on October 30, 1949, soon after the end of World War II, at the request of Rev. Bascom Watts. The first class presidents were Ed and Mildred Day, and founding members Myra Critz, Pauline Jones and Ray Masters are still active members.

The class has always been a vital and active, at one time numbering over 150 members. This class started the Chili Supper that church members still enjoy, and its members have served in many church leadership roles over the years.

In addition, they have supported numerous missions with their gifts and service, including foreign missionary Rev. Murray Dickson, various United Methodist ministries, the Day Center for the Homeless, Habitat for Humanity, Exodus House, and most recently the Happy Children's Home in China.

PTS Faith Matters: Neither Fat or Thin

Phillips Theological Seminary's Faith Matters series presents "Neither Fat Persons nor Thin Ones: Thinking Theologically about Diets, Shame and Body Size" this Monday, October 12, at the seminary's Tabbernee Conference Center, 901 North Mingo Road.

The free lecture by Sarah Morice Brubaker will look at rhetoric surrounding the so-called obesity crisis. She will unpack the culturally-loaded terms "fat" and "thin" and lay a theological groundwork for speaking out against the culture of body shame and size discrimination. The concepts are about more than just health.

ShalomFest is this Sunday

Temple Israel's annual ShalomFest, a celebration of Jewish food, music and tradition, will be held this Sunday, October 11, from noon to 6 p.m. for Tulsans of all faiths who would like to know more about Judaism. Temple Israel is located at 200 East 22nd Place.

The afternoon of fun and music will include music by the Temple Israel Levites and Tulsa Klezmer Band, with a special appearance by Rebecca Ungerman. There will also be a Torah demonstration and viewing at 1 p.m. followed by demonstrations of a Bar Mitzvah at 2:00 and a wedding at 3 p.m. There will also be jewelry and holiday items for sale, crafts for children, and great traditional foods.

do, if they wish

Those who prefer to do less strenuous work will be making and delivering lunches to our teams' work sites, delivering food for Meals on Wheels, helping the children with their projects or taking pictures and video at the various sites for a follow-up report.

Members of each team will be free to leave as soon as their particular mission is complete.

On Sunday, October 25, a group picture of all Downtown for Good volunteers will be taken on the north steps immediately after the 8:30 worship service. A lunch and celebration in the park will then follow the 11:00 service.

October 25 is also Pledge Sunday, and all church members are encouraged to bring their estimates of giving that day.

Be sure to sign up this Sunday, October 11, to be scheduled on a team! The registration form includes questions about your preferences regarding mission projects and teams.

Downtown for Good T-shirts will also be available for purchase, for those who choose to do so.

Oberammergau Film is Sunday

Warren and Lynette Danskin will host a short information session this Sunday at noon in the Asbury Room on an upcoming trip to the Passion Play in Oberammergau, Germany. The trip begins on August 10, 2010. Spiritual leaders are Bishop and Mrs. Robert Hayes, Jr. and the Danskins are serving as hosts.

The session will include a 10-minute film on the Passion Play's 2010 season. All are welcome to come and ask questions.

A statewide group of Oklahoma Methodists will participate in the nine-day journey that includes the play. Other sites include Salzburg, Innsbruck, Dachau, cathedrals, and castles including two of Mad King Ludwig's castles Linderhof and Neuschwanstein (on which the Disneyland Castle is modeled).

The Passion Play is presented one summer every ten years.

SCE underway; Luncheon speaker shares outlaw stories

Tulsa attorney Larry Yadon will delight listeners with stories of Oklahoma and Texas outlaws and gangsters at the Forum Luncheon this Wednesday at 11:45. Yadon is a noted author on Oklahoma and wild west history. There is no charge to hear him without eating the meal.

This week in SCE:

Classes mentioned here are those whose topic and/or instructor change each week. Some classes are still open. Registration is $12.

Cookson gift collection continues through October

Our United Methodist Women are collecting gift items for the annual Christmas Store at Cookson Hills Mission. Practical gift items are needed and they can be left on the tables in Bishops' Hall any time through October 31. Please mark them, "Cookson."

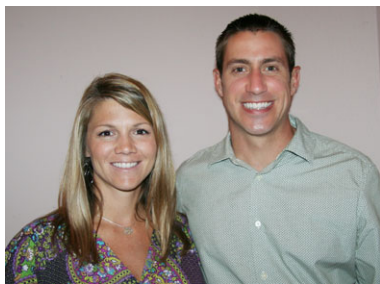

All gifts should be new and unwrapped. They will be displayed in the mission's Christmas store, where about 300 poverty-level families will pay a token amount, based on their income, to "shop" in the store for gifts for their loved ones.

Cash donations are also very much appreciated as they can be used to purchase specific items needed at the store..

Christmas Store needs:

Clothing (all sizes and ages),	Clocks or clock radios
Boys' briefs - sizes 4,6 or 8	can openers,
Mens' underwear - small, med.	pots and pans,
Boys' toddler socks - small	drinking glass sets
Girls' toddler socks and panties	Hair dryers, curling irons,
Hats and mittens - all sizes	bath sets,
Coats - all sizes	Portable CD players
Tools and jumper cables	CDs,
Crock pots and coffee makers,	Balls
Mini food processors	Toys for all ages.

Youth News!! . . .

Senior High

Can you believe that it's already OCTOBER???. Tis' the season of browns, yellows and oranges. And speaking of orange—it's time to break out our little orange boxes and start collecting spare change for UNICEF! The boxes are on the fourth floor, so be sure to pick one up and get busy gathering coins around your house. Flip over those couch cushions, dig around in the dryer - you never know where you'll find some change (and possibly some old Cheetos!). Keep your box all month, and turn it in by November 1st

Upcoming Events:

Holy WoW continues on Wednesday nights, 7-8, except fall break week. If you've never been, it's not too late! Come join the fun!
Oct 11- Sophomore Girls' Small Group is heading to the Cheesecake Factory! 5:30-7!

Oct 24- Downtown for Good! Join your B.A. friends for a day of mission work! Sign up in Bishop's Hall on Sunday morning!

Oct 25- Senior Girls Small Group. Make jewelry and go to dinner! Watch for a postcard from Karen & Carol with details.

By the time you read this, I'll be back from China and will be anxious to share with you all about the Happy Children's Home!
Joyfully, Audra

7th and 8th Grade

Our new Sunday morning classes started last week, and we have three options for the month of October. They are "Things Christians Believe," "LinC Living in Christ," and "Bunraku Puppetry." There is always room for one more, so if you missed the first class, just come this Sunday and we will be happy to see you.

It is time to pick up a UNICEF box. Make Halloween count! Take a box home, fill it with change throughout October, take it out Trick or Treating, then bring it back to church after Halloween. It's a simple way to make a BIG difference for children worldwide.

HOLY WOW is really fun. I have enjoyed watching the artists in the art room and the cooks in the kitchen. Next time I will check out the volleyball players in Jubilee Hall.

Fall Break begins for many of you on October 14th. We will not have HOLY WOW that Wednesday. Enjoy your break!

Confirmation Youth

Our Questions and Answers with Dr. Biggs was time well spent, as always. We all enjoyed hearing the answers to your questions. We are never too old or too smart to learn more about our faith.

Thank you to the sixth graders who participated in Crop Walk on Sunday. It was a small group, but remember that working together with other churches makes a larger team to help those in need. Your walking made a difference!!!

Letters have gone out to your homes this week with details for our Confirmation lunch in November. It is only six weeks until Confirmation Sunday!

We are taking a vacation from Holy Wow on October 14th for Fall Break. We never take a break from Sunday morning, so keep up your good attendance.

Get your UNICEF box this Sunday on the third floor to make Halloween count!!!!

Enjoying our journey together,
Debbie

Youth Symphony workshop is Sunday

Tulsa Youth Symphony will present a free concert of music designed to introduce instruments of the orchestra to young people this Sunday, October 11, at 3 and 4:15 p.m. in the Liddy Doenges Theatre at the Performing Arts Center, 110 East Second Street.

The 45-minute concert for preschoolers through elementary school children will feature demonstrations of instruments and stories about the music and composers. Children will receive a musical activity book and information about the orchestra.

UMW News

By Janet McCutchen Graham

Vicky Langston will present a UMW Charter for Racial Justice program at the unit meeting on Thursday, October 15 at 11 a.m. in the Asbury Room. Vicky originated Open Tables, a Tulsa interfaith group of Jews, Muslims, and Christians who host one another for dinner fellowship to learn about each other's faiths. She recently returned from a North Carolina Peace Conference and will soon help with a November Karen Armstrong Charter for Compassion Event.

The catered meal is $10. Reservations should be mailed to Coe Ann Patton, 8536 E. 7th St. Tulsa, 74112.

Circle PM will meet Wednesday, October 14, at 7 p.m. for refreshments with hostess Sue Davenport. Beverly Lightner will give the devotional, and Carol Bean will present part 2 of the Spiritual Growth Study "I Believe in Jesus."

Circle W will meet Saturday, October 17, at 12 noon in Bishop's Hall to go together to share a Native American taco lunch at the Native American Methodist Church as part of their study of "Giving Our Hearts Away: Native American Survival."

The 2009 UMW Mission Coffee, "A Cup of Coffee for Missions," was a resounding success! Sustaining and active members donated $3,500 to missions. Their money will support women, children, and youth worldwide through the Women's Division, General Board of Global Ministries.

In addition to that mission pledge, our UMW continues to support Cookson Hills Mission, Neighborhood Services Organization (a national UMW mission), Circle of Care, Project Transformation, and TU Wesley Foundation through prayers, gifts, and services.

Everyone at the coffee enjoyed delicious food and warm fellowship and our B.A. UMW missions were generously funded.

Brad and Michelle are celebrating an anniversary.

Disciples

Sue Venable told us about early events in Moses' life. She will return Sunday to continue the story and to answer questions.

We welcomed Brice Venable as a visitor.

Happy birthday to Tammy Wood. Dave and Helen Harris are celebrating an anniversary.

Thanks to Tammy Wood for our treats. The Slusses will bring them this week.

Ephphatha

Charles Dye will teach this Sunday on "Recognizing Jesus."

Happy birthday to Roy Don Robinson.

Leah Johns taught last week. Thank you.

Heritage

Our next social, a potluck dinner, is October 27 at Methodist Manor. More details later.

Jim Sluss will teach us Sunday. Thanks to Steve Herr for his presentation last week on globalization, a very timely subject.

The Snellings will celebrate an anniversary on the 10th.

Thanks to the Waychoffs for our refreshments. The Thomases will furnish them this week.

Homebuilders

Pat Hardin and Joanna Tuers led our singing. Ralph Morgan presided.

Eleanor Emmons will continue her series on the Beatitudes this Sunday. We thank her.

We elected Kathryn Parker as our president and Ron Setser will be vice-president.

Don Rubottom and Lynn Bartlett gave to missions for their birthdays.

Ron Setser made our goodies and coffee. We had 29 present.

Horizons

There is a mission opportunity with "Downtown for Good" on October 24.

Join us Sunday! Kevin Raley will lead us through Adam Hamilton's Christianity and World Religions, specifically

"Questions People Ask." The Raleys will bring our treats.

Lori Hefling and Bart Colburn were our visitors.

Meg Robinett is celebrating a birthday, and the Huckabys are celebrating an anniversary.

Thanks to Paul Staat for teaching us on outreach at B.A. Thanks to the Eddins for treats.

Seek and Discover

Be sure to sign up for Downtown for Good, which is happening on October 24.

Dr. Bill Tankersley will be our teacher this Sunday.

Keep Lynnell in your prayers. Flu alert.

Thanks to Jeannie Boone for the wonderful devotional.

Wesley Fellowship

Gray skies and raindrops failed to dampen the spirits of the faithful who worshiped on Sunday with Phillele and Rollie to lead us. We loved singing the old familiar hymns. Patsy Byrd gave a thoughtful devotional and led in prayer. Susie Sharp, our teacher, brought much good information about helpful senior services in our area. Thank you, Susie.

Martha Eskridge had a birthday and a great present, a new granddaughter. Congratulations.

Prayer concerns: Gerry and Joe Becker, Doris Combs, Betty Taylor, and Carolyn Evans (Doyle). Prayers for these and others. Hold them in your hearts.

We had 62 members and our teacher present.

Come this week to enjoy and share your faith. Grace Burke will present "Memory Loss: When is it Alzheimer's?" You will be blessed. Shalom.
