Downtown for Good scheduling is underway

Above, staff members spent the day Tuesday scheduling teams of volunteers for our first Downtown for Good, and they're excited about the results. Team leaders have been assigned for each project, over 150 volunteers have also been assigned, and they're always room for more!

If you would like to participate but are unsure about what you can do, there is something for everyone - no experience necessary. Volunteers will help shop for food ahead of time, prepare meals for teams, help children with their missions, etc. Any time frame can be utilized!

Those who have signed up will receive a postcard this week telling

Cookson Mission needs help with Christmas gifts

Our United Methodist Women's collection of gift items for the annual Christmas Store at Cookson Hills Center near Tahlequah continues through October. Practical gift items are needed. They can be left on the tables in Bishops' Hall, marked "Cookson," through October 25.

All gifts should be new and unwrapped. About 300 poverty-level families will pay a token amount, based on their income, to "shop" in the store for gifts for their loved ones. Cash donations are also very much appreciated to fill in items needed at the store.

Christmas Store needs:

Clothing (all sizes and ages),
Boys' briefs - sizes 4,6 or 8
Mens' underwear - small, med.
Boys' toddler socks - small
Girls' toddler socks and panties
Hats and mittens - all sizes
Coats - all sizes
Tools and jumper cables
Crock pots and coffee makers,
Mini food processors

Clocks or clock radios
can openers,
pots and pans,
drinking glass sets
Hair dryers, curling irons,
bath sets,
Portable CD players
CDs,
Balls
Toys for all ages.

From the Pastor's Study

Mouzon Biggs, Jr.

Dr. Eugene Peterson translates a part of next Sunday's lection as follows:

"There is nothing like the written Word of God for showing you the way to salvation through faith in Jesus Christ. Every part of scripture is God-breathed and useful one way or another ... You're going to find that there will be times when people will have no stomach for solid teaching, but will fill up on spiritual junk food - catchy opinions that tickle their fancy."

Even so, observe how different people can be when they are reading the same Book. How different are Hassidic Jews (dressed all in black, curled forelocks in front of little boys' ears, large numbers of children in every family) from your neighbors in Tulsa who belong to Temple Israel or Congregation B'nai Emunah?

How different are Amish Christians from the Episcopalians you know? How different is Bishop Tutu from your Pentecostal neighbor? How different is your Roman Catholic neighbor from Jimmy Swaggerty? And yet, all of these will tell you they are doing what the Bible tells them to do.

My sermon this Sunday will be, "WE ALL BELIEVE IN THE BIBLE, BUT BELIEVE WHAT?"

Pledge materials to be mailed Monday

In addition to being Downtown for Good, next Sunday, October 25, is Pledge Sunday at B.A. Pledge materials will be mailed this week.

When the materials arrive, please read them carefully, then prayerfully consider your 2010 estimate of giving. All are asked to bring their completed cards to the church for dedication during either worship service next Sunday. They can also be mailed, brought to the church, or the number can be given to Lillian Dickey, our financial secretary, at 699-0136; or emailed to brendareed@bostonavenue.org.

Threat specialist to teach self defense

Want to know more about defending yourself? Robin Babb, a nationally-known Threat Assessment Specialist, is coming to Boston Avenue to teach a self defense class for women and teenage girls. It will be held Sunday, November 1, from 3:30-5:30 in Room J221.

Ms. Babb spent several years as a bodyguard for wealthy or famous clients before entering threat

Phillips Theological Seminary's Faith Matters series presents "Christian Practice in a Religiously Plural World" this Monday, October 19, at the seminary's Tabbernee Conference Center, 901 North Mingo Road.

The free lecture will be presented by Dr. Don Pittman, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dean, and the William Tabbernee Professor of the History of Religions.

Living in what has become, in recent year the most religiously diverse nation on the earth, Christians in the U.S. are increasingly called upon to practice their faith in an interfaith context. Many have recognized the need to develop a theology of religions, a perspective on the reality and vitality of other faiths, and an approach to dialogue and cooperation with persons committed to other religious communities. Dr. Pittman will address these issues Monday evening.

assessment management (the study of mentally ill persons who are infatuated, obsessed, or hold delusions regarding public figures.)

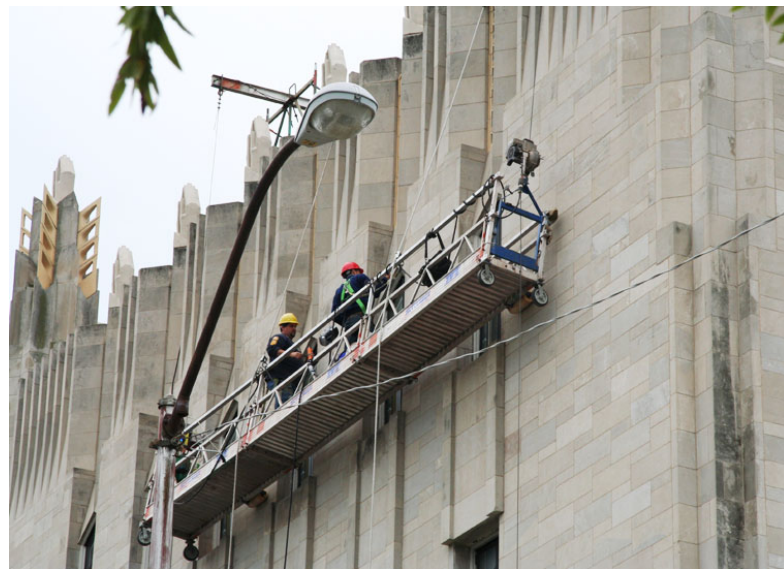

"This is an outstanding opportunity, especially for teenagers and young women," said Dr. Bill Crowell. "It's not often that we are able to engage someone of her stature and expertise."

Along with her invaluable experience in dealing with stalkers and studying violence, she has had years of training in hand-to-hand combat and martial arts.

"I'm well aware that women today often don't have time to learn the intricate and sometimes complicated moves of martial arts," says Babb. Consequently, she has developed a system of personal defense strategies for women that can be learned quickly and effectively with minimal training.

Robin's experience in both large and small public forums has given her a speaking style that is lively and entertaining. Along with radio, podcasts and television addresses on self defense, she has given expert testimony in highly publicized stalker trials and in front of the California State Senate regarding stalker legislation.

In this brief time Robin can teach women of all ages how to become more aware of your surroundings and protect yourself, whether the situation involves an abusive relationship, workplace violence, or an attack on the street. She will teach viable alternatives to prevent becoming or remaining a victim.

Waterproofing continues as weather permits

Workers who are sealing and re-mortaring the exterior of the main building have been hampered by the weather recently, but work is continuing. It is hoped that the project can be completed in the next few weeks.

Forum Luncheon speaker to discuss Afghanistan work

Dr. James Wilhite, U.S. Army Colonel, Retired, will present "We Answered the Call: Building the Crown Jewel of Afghanistan" at this week's Forum Luncheon. Meals are $6 each and reservations are due Sunday. There is no charge for those wanting to hear him without the meal.

Everything was right with the world for Dr. Wilhite, Professor of Education at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah. Then it turned upside down.

Called to active duty for the Army, Dr. Wilhite became Colonel Wilhite and embarked on a mission that seemed impossible to accomplish. He was asked to build a university with no money and with no full time staff.

"Build it using the model of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York," the orders said. "And complete the mission in ten months."

With drive and determination and many answered prayers, Colonel Wilhite's mission was successful.

This presentation is based on the book that describes the grit and determination that Colonel Wilhite and a group of individuals demonstrated that eventually became one of the most documented and successful missions of Operation Enduring Freedom.

This week in SCE:

Classes mentioned here are those whose topic and/or instructor change each week. Some classes are still open. Registration is $12.

Dr. James Wilhite

your team assignment, leader, project, tools needed and location. All volunteers are asked to wear old work clothes and sturdy, closed-toe shoes. Also bring work gloves (preferably with leather palms).

The only cost is for T-shirts for those who want one ($10).

Opening worship on that Saturday will begin at 8:30 a.m. in Community Hall. Volunteers will then meet with their team leader, get their lunch, and travel to the work site. If you want to participate but have not yet registered, please complete a registration form this Sunday and leave it on the table in Bishops' Hall.

On Sunday, October 25, a group picture of all Downtown for Good volunteers will be taken on the north steps immediately after the 8:30 worship service. We want to recognize you!

A lunch and celebration in the park will then follow the 11:00 service, and all church members and friends are welcome! The celebration will include a lunch of grilled hotdogs and trimmings, plus chips, cookie and a drink, for a nominal charge. There will also be volleyball, music, face painting, pony rides, a photo booth, costumes for children who want to wear them, and other great activities.

UMW News

By Janet McCutchen Graham

Cookson Hills Mission Christmas collection will continue through October 25, so UMW members will need to plan carefully to buy women's, children's, youth's, and men's useful warm clothes, gloves, hats, and much-needed tools such as jumper cables, long-lasting flashlights, cookware, blankets, etc.

Children need long-lasting toys with no battery requirements such as books, jump ropes, skates, wooden puzzles, etc.

These unwrapped gifts should be placed in bags on the tables provided at the north and south entrances into Bishops' Hall. The Mission's clients must meet criteria which means only those who truly can't afford to buy their Christmas presents will be allowed to go through the store, pay a small amount if possible, and choose family gifts.

Marriage Retreat set November 13-14

Marriage for Good, a retreat for couples who want to create even better marriages, will be held November 13-14 at beautiful Lakeview Lodge located on the Neosho River Ranch.

Cost of the retreat, which begins at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, November 13 and concludes at 8:00 p.m. the following day, is $100 per couple.

Participants will be treated to a weekend of enjoyable and creative activities, time for rest and relaxation, away from the demands of work and family. It's a great opportunity to reconnect with the person you love most!

Linda Alegria is a licensed clinical social worker and B.A. member with over 30 years of experience. She enjoys working with groups and leading clients to fuller, richer lives.

Homebound training set

Dr. Bill Tankersley, head of our pastoral care ministry, needs additional volunteers to visit and/or call some of our homebound members. This contact from the church is greatly appreciated by those who can no longer come to worship.

A training for all new volunteers will be held this Sunday, October 18, from 2:30-4:00 in the Asbury Room. A second training will be held on Sunday, November 8, in the Oxford Room. For more information or to volunteer, contact Dr. Tankersley at 699-0126 or billtankersley@bostonavenue.org.

Youth News!! . . .

Senior High News

You NEVER KNOW what could happen at a youth event!!! Our sophomore girls group was enjoying dessert at the Cheesecake Factory this past Sunday evening... when all of a sudden.....Miley Cyrus arrived!!! Miss Sophomore girls group last night? Awwwww.....you gotta be there or you'll miss all the fun!!!

I am glad to be back at Boston Avenue, but I'm missing the children at the Happy Children's Home! What a journey - ranging from awe to heartbreak!

I will be sharing some of my pictures from China and a little about the adventure this Sunday morning, October 18, during the Sunday School hour. I am excited about our opportunities for mission in the future! Anyone interested in getting involved is welcome to come- youth and adult alike!

Enjoy Fall Break with your families- we'll be itchin' to get back to Holy WOW next week!

Don't forget to pick up your UNICEF box! We will be collecting change for UNICEF during the month of October.

Sharing God's Love around the world!!- Audra

7th and 8th Grade

Our Downtown for Good Day is fast approaching. On Sunday, ten of our seventh and eighth graders signed up to come and be part of helping others on Saturday, October 24th. It is not too late for you to register! Just let me know and we will put you on a work team. Mid-high youth are excellent workers.

Mark your calendar for our mid-high Halloween party on Friday evening, October 30th. Prizes will be awarded for costumes, and we'll have dinner along with games and other fun activities.

Enjoy your fall break and come back Sunday morning ready to rock and roll.

Confirmation Youth

Don't forget to pick up your UNICEF box on Sunday. The Confirmation Class, in past years, has been the leader in this simple way of helping children around the world. You can put a box at home for your family to contribute their loose change and you can come to the mid-high Halloween party on Friday October 30th. During the party we will go Trick or Treating for UNICEF.

Invitations to the party will land in your mailbox soon. Be sure to read your mail so that you stay up to date on all that the church has to offer.

This Sunday we will begin taking your pictures during Sunday School for the church newspaper when you are confirmed. Shari Goodwin will be on the third floor to get your best shot...

Enjoy your fall break with friends and family!
Joy for the journey - Debbie

OMM to host free lunch

Oklahoma Methodist Manor will offer a complimentary lunch and a presentation to provide an update on campus renovation and Crestwood, their new facility, on Sunday, November 1, in Jubilee Hall at 12:15 p.m. If you want to attend, please call Julie at 574-2590 to make a reservation by Wednesday, October 28.

“Creating Holy-days” to be Women’s Retreat theme

Is your holiday budget overspent every year?
Do you find yourself too dog-tired and stressed out to enjoy?
Do you need tools for reducing stress and celebrating the holy?

If you are a woman, help is just around the corner! This year's Women's Retreat will focus on those very questions.

The women's retreat will be another useful tool for preparing for the holidays, just like the Advent Workshop, pictured above.

The retreat will be held Saturday, November 7, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the church. A registration fee of just $45 covers snacks, lunch, and all materials. All you need to do is bring a journal and a three-ring binder and wear comfortable clothing.

The goal of the retreat is to create time and space for rest and renewal. Many women dread the thought of all the preparation, spending, and stress involved in the holidays, and this retreat will help them envision a holiday of true peace and joy. It will also help each participant make a definite plan to reclaim the anticipation of holy days.

Child care is provided by advance reservation. Please bring a sack lunch for your child or children.

To register, pick up a brochure at the church, complete it and send it with your check to Linda Alegria, 11213 S. 107th East Av-
