Bible scholar to speak at M. L. King service Sunday, youth host parade float Monday

Our church will again host the annual Martin Luther King, Jr., Commemoration Service this Sunday, January 16, at 6:00 p.m.

Firpo Carr, a well-known author, scholar, Bible translator, and lecturer, will be the guest speaker. His works have been produced in 54 languages and have reached over twice as many countries. His weekly articles are translated into 34 languages.

He has appeared as a scholar on such nationally televised documentaries as Encounters with the Unexplained: Secrets of the Bible-What Do the Dead Sea Scrolls Tell Us?, and the prime time specials, Ancient Secrets of the Bible I and II.

He has experienced the Watts Revolt of 1965, the Los Angeles Uprising of 1992, and the ever-present threat of gang violence in the Nickerson Gardens housing projects, L.A.'s largest. His works have been acknowledged by Jewish scholars at the U. S. Holocaust Memorial Museum and in encyclopedia entries on the Holocaust, and his bestselling book, Germany's Black Holocaust: 1890-1945 (GBH), is being used as a textbook at Cornell and similar universities.

He has appeared on televised shows such as ABC's 20/20 and Good Morning America;

CBS's Early Morning; NBC's Today Show and Weekend Today; CNN's American Morning, MSNBC's The Abram's Report and Hardball with Chris Matthews; and FOX News's At Large With Geraldo and Debra Norvell.

The evening will include presentation of the Keeping the Dream Alive Award, and the MLK Oratorical Contest winner will recite Dr. King's famous "I Have a Dream" speech. Child care is available.

Prior to the service, at 5:30, a candlelight peace procession will begin at 7th and Cincinnati. A shuttle service will be provided at 4:45 from the church to the beginning of the procession. Walkers should bring a flashlight.

On Monday all are invited to walk in the M.L. King, Jr. Parade. Our youth are decorating a float, which will be added to our buses in the parade. They invite all to meet them at the church by 9:30 a.m. to go to the 11:00 parade. Call Dr. Bill Crowell, 699-0127, to participate.

New Disciple Bible Study, Invitation classes offered

Enrollment begins this Sunday, January 16th, for an additional thirty-four week Disciple Bible Study class and two ten-week Invitation courses. More long-term Disciple Bible Study classes began last fall and are still underway,

Those who have never taken a Disciple Bible Study course before, or who want to explore the entire Bible again, are encouraged to join Rev. Paul Staat and DeAnn McArtor for Disciple I. This course covers Genesis through Revelation. This class is the foundation for all other Disciple Bible Study courses.

Classes begin February 6th and will be held each Sunday evening at 6:00. The study term will be split into two parts to allow for a summer break.

Those who would like to know more about the Gospel of John are invited to join facilitators Sheila Van Hersh and Darlyn Slater in a ten-week Invitation to John class starting February 22nd. Students will learn how this gospel is set apart from the "synoptic" gospels - Matthew, Mark and Luke. After an introduction class on February 22nd, classes will be held on Mondays at 10:00 a.m. in the church library. An Invitation to the New Testament class will also be offered.

Registration tables will be available in Bishop's Hall the next three Sundays - January 16th, 23rd, and 30th - before and after each worship service. Each class will be an enriching opportunity to increase your understanding of Scripture as part of your continuing faith development.

New format adds speakers, programs

Enrollment for Open Tables concludes this Sunday

Enrollment for the 2011 Open Tables interfaith program will conclude this Sunday in Bishops' Hall. A new format is being used this year to add guest speakers and programs, and to ease the burden of hosting.

Instead of going to private homes, participants will enjoy three potluck dinners in Jubilee Hall. Each person or family will be asked to bring a dish to share, then each table will include a diverse group of people from the Christian, Jewish, Muslim and Hindu faiths. Discussion questions will aid the dialogue.

Guest speakers and programs will also share holidays and customs

Interfaith Trialogue explores medical dilemmas

Boston Avenuers are invited to join local religious and medical leaders as they discuss "Medical Dilemmas of Living and Dying in America" at the 2011 Interfaith Trialogue Series. The event begins February 6.

Sponsored by OCCJ and funded in part by a Tulsa Library Trust endowment, the three-part series will meet on Sundays, Feb. 6, 13 and 20, at 2 p.m. at varying locations.

Dr. Bill Crowell will moderate each discussion. The programs are free and open to the public. Donations are welcome.

Session 1 - "Living vs. Dying: The Costs," at B.A. Most health-care dollars go to patients in their last six months of life. Many want to die at home, but typically do not. The technology that sustains us at the end presents enormous ethical challenges. Are there more cost-effective, less controversial interventions?

Jeff Alderman, M.D., and Kevin Donovan, M.D., OU School of Community Medicine

Session 2, "Who Cares & How," Feb. 13, Peace Academy, 4620 S. Irvington - Peace of soul might mean choosing against treatment. What happens when people stop seeing disease as a battleground? Is palliative care an acceptable response to the challenge of terminal

From the Pastor's Study

Sunday was cloudy and cold, but you had set your alarms and were here in good numbers for Sunday school and church. Thank you for making faithful, every-week attendance one of your goals for 2011. We are off to a great start.

This Sunday's lection comes from "Trito-Isaiah," the third portion of the Book of Isaiah. Our best Christian scholars believe this text was written from Judah after the Persians had overrun the Babylonians and allowed the Jews to go home. Those who went home found a devastated homeland.

No one had rebuilt the temple. No one had rebuilt the walls designed to protect the city. The Canaanites had reasserted themselves and held all the best grazing lands, the best watering holes, the olive groves, the vineyards, and the best farmlands.

This unknown author describes Judah as a woman divorced by her husband - defenseless, friendless, and poverty-stricken. He sees Israel's God coming to "marry" Judah as a "bridegroom rejoicing over his bride." Things are sure to get better!

I am calling the sermon, "TOMORROW WILL BE BETTER - I PROMISE!"

Sanctuary volunteers needed

Volunteers are needed to replace envelopes and prayer cards, sharpen pencils, and straighten hymnals in our sanctuary.

Brenda Reed currently has four teams of volunteers, and each team works just once a month. Each team member covers the balcony, the center section, or two of the side sections.

Work can be done at the volunteer's convenience that week. Contact Brenda, 699-0135, to volunteer or for more information.

B.A. members lead Travels with Tulsans

Travels with Tulsans 2011 is now underway on Wednesdays, January 12-February 23, from 12:10-12:50 in the Aaronson Auditorium at Central Library, Fourth and Denver. Stan Teter helped coordinate the programs, which involved a number of B.A. members.

Drs. Ruth and Ken Weston began the series with "Spain: Art, Architecture and Adventure" on January 12, and Marian Clark will lead a culinary tour of America's most famous highway with "Get Your Kicks Along Route 66" on January 19.

On February 9 Tom Campbell will share the Taj Mahal and Seven Wonders of the World in "India: A Kaleidoscope of Experiences."

The series is free, and coffee and sandwiches are available. Sessions also visit the route of Lewis and Clark, France and Timbuktu.

illness? What is "terminal"? Many fear pulling the plug on those we love. Where is God in this complicated equation? Barbara Bilderback, St. Francis Hospice; Ron Nofziger, Hillcrest Medical Center; Rabbi Anna Berroll, Temple Israel; Dr. Mindy McGarrah Sharp, Phillips Seminary; and Dr. Ziad Sous, Islamic Society

Session 3, "Meaning in the Shadows," Feb. 20, Congregation B'nai Emunah, 17th Street and Peoria - Every tradition defines the meaning of life, but also must deal with the meaning of death. Is death the end, or is there more to be encountered at the moment of death? How can we leave a legacy to benefit the general good? Can death be part of a beautiful and fulfilling life? Rev. Irv Cutter, St. John's Episcopal Church; Nuredin Giayash, Peace Academy; and Father Jack Gleason, Church of the Madalene.

B.A. to host leadership training

"Keeping Leadership Real" is the title of this year's Local Church Leaders' Workshop, which will be held Saturday, January 22nd, at Boston Avenue Church. Those seeking to enrich leadership skills and grow in faith are encouraged to attend. B.A. will cover the registration fee.

Bishop Robert E. Hayes, Jr., will lead opening worship at 8:30. Class sessions are 19:40 to 11:00 a.m. and 11:10-12:20.

Bishop Hayes will also share insights and answer questions during both class sessions. Rev. Mike Chaffin, our Tulsa District Superintendent, will lead "Pastor Parish Relations," and Boston Avenuers Marjorie Monnet, Audra Fogle, Rev. EvaMarie Campbell, and Marita Morgan will lead classes.

Topics include missions, hospitality, children in Oklahoma, Celtic spiritual practices, using technology and welcoming visitors.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. in Jubilee Hall. Call Brenda Reed, 699-0135, for more information.

Calling all scrapbookers!

Come enjoy scrapbooking with Rev. EvaMarie Campbell and friends this Tuesday, January 18, 8 a.m. to noon in room J130. Child care provided 9:30-noon. Bring a snack to share.

Great Decisions returns to B.A.

A city-wide kickoff for the 2011 Great Decisions discussion series will be held next Sunday, January 23, in the Aaronson Auditorium in Central Library, 4th and Denver. Guest speaker Jessee Pilgrim has traveled worldwide to help troubled nations create democracy and oversee elections.

All are welcome and will have an opportunity to meet other participants, get a study guide, and enjoy refreshments.

Our church will host a Great Decisions group beginning February 9. It meets on Wednesdays through March 30, 1:30-3:30 in room J222. Don Rubottom will again serve as the discussion leader.

Great Decisions is sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association and Tulsa City County Friends of the Library. Eight topics are chosen for discussion to keep citizens informed about world events.

The 2011 topics include "Rebuilding Haiti," "National Security," "Horn of Africa," "Financial Crisis," "Germany ascendant," "Nonproliferation," "Crisis in the Caucasus," and "Global governance."

Study guides are available for $15 at the information desk starting January 27th. To join this group, please call coordinator Stan Teter, 307-8424 or Don Rubottom, 296-5561.

Dress warmly and be prepared to walk. Parade begins at 11:00

Our mid-high basketball teams play Saturday, and they would appreciate a cheering section. All of the games are at First United Methodist Church; check the website for the schedules.

I am thankful to have a nice warm place to work and live this cold week of winter. Hope you are counting your blessings too.

Warmly, Debbie

Want to help feed the homeless?

By the Rev. Paul Staat

Our church has committed to provide and serve a meal at the Day Center for the Homeless twice month. Most of those dates have been scheduled, but we do still have a few open dates, if your group would like to participate.

Open dates include

Friday, April 8                      Friday, June 10

Wednesday, June 22              Wednesday, July 27

Wednesday, Nov. 23              Wednesday, Dec. 28

Please let me know as soon as possible if there is a date you would like to take and I will make sure it is reserved for you.

Thank you for the faithful service you continue to provide to the Day Center. It has a tremendous impact on our community.

Pick an apple for Burroughs

Allison McMurry, Grace Rogers, Hannah Campbell and Katherine Eddins have hung the apples on this year's apple tree for Burroughs. They're ready for picking! All B.A. members are invited to stop by the church library, pick an apple, then purchase the requested item and return it to the church.

Rev. EvaMarie Campbell and helpers will deliver the items to the teachers. They eagerly look forward to this help each year, as they often must purchase classroom supplies themselves.

UMW News

By Janet McCutchen Graham

Oklahoma Conference of Churches Day at the Legislature will be held February 22nd at the State Capitol in Oklahoma City. Updates from Oklahoma legislators and expert panels covering current social concerns will make this an outstanding event.

Volunteers are needed to bring cookies and fruit for the January 29 CWU meeting at 9:00 a.m. at B.A. Mark Davenport from B.A. will bring the program about the boys' group home

Look for more details for Cornerstone's upcoming January social.

Linda Alegria will continue her insights from the book, Simpler Living, Compassionate Life, a Christian Perspective, this Sunday.

We welcomed visitors Darren and Tara Mundell Sunday.

Disciples

Have your goal for the new year be to return to Sunday School. We miss you.

We concluded our series from James Moore's book. Thanks to Helen for leading this for us. Thanks also to Warren for the refreshments.

You won't want to miss our exciting new series this week.

Heritage

We need a location for the Super Bowl party. Contact Elizabeth Harrington if you would like to host it.

Rev. Ken Tobler will continue his series this week.

The Bertrems will bring treats. Happy birthday to Jill Hoilien.

Rev. Ken Tobler discussed how God speaks to us through the spoken word, the written word, and the living word. God is like Christ.

Homebuilders

Ruth Weston continued teaching from Christianity's Family Tree, by Adam Hamilton. We look forward to hearing about Presbyterianism and Anglicanism this week.

Bob Bowker is doing better and would welcome visits. Bob Ritter is in the hospital again, and Dolores would welcome cards or emails. Keep both couples in your prayers.

Pat Hardin gave to missions for her granddaughter's picture in The Word and her grandson's being part of the All-Region Honor Band. Ken Weston gave for Ruth's presentation at the library about their travels in Spain last year.

Pat Hardin and Patsy Brown led the music. Coffee was provided by Don Rubottom and treats by Wanda Franks.

Horizons

We will serve at the Day Center for the Homeless on Wednesday, January 26. Our Valentine's social is coming soon. Look for details.

Please join us this week for either a youth Rio Bravo presentation or another lesson in Adam Hamilton's series. Paula will bring our treats.

Happy birthday to William Pinkstaff.

Thanks to Alan for leading us in a discussion from Adam Hamilton's book, When Christians Go Wrong.

Thanks to the Robinetts for the treats.

Maranatha

We will serve dinner this Friday, January 14, at the Day Center for the Homeless.

We welcomed visitors Elaine Wilcox, Rebekah Tedder, and Rebecca Allen.

Happy birthday to Joel Panciera, David Rose, Jim Seymour, and David Worthington.

Thanks to Joel for teaching Sunday on Christian holidays. He will return this Sunday.

Thanks to Mickey and Carol Maus for the refreshments.
