They're eager to share this Sunday!

In the past year our youth have shared their faith with other Tulsans at The Great Unknown, with those of other beliefs at Teen Trialogues, and even with those in other countries during the mission trip. Now they're eager to share with their own faith family - especially the "stockholders" who invested in their faith development this year.

They invite everyone to come to Community Hall this Sunday at 6:00 to enjoy a Gospel Cafe - where the special is always the Peace of God! You will be greeted by gracious hospitality and served delicious homemade hot chocolate and fresh-baked cookies to begin an uplifting evening. Their goal is to overwhelm church members with the love of God and Christian hospitality.

Worshippers will sit at tables, and each will have two table leaders- one mid high, one senior high. The youth will lead the liturgy and special music. Communion will be shared by intinction at the tables. In closing, Larkin McCann will lead the benediction in Hebrew, with our youth surrounding the congregation

They are baking, making extra special hot chocolate, and decorating extravagantly so our congregation may experience God's shalom - which is more than just peace.

Health issues in America: an interfaith perspective

Boston Avenuers are invited to join local religious and medical leaders as they discuss "Medical Dilemmas of Living and Dying in America" at the 2011 Interfaith Trialogue Series.

Sponsored by OCCJ and funded in part by a Tulsa Library Trust endowment, the three-part series will meet on Sundays, Feb. 6, 13 and 20, at 2 p.m. at varying locations. Dr. Bill Crowell will moderate and the programs are free and open to the public.

Session 1 - "Living vs. Dying: The Costs," at Boston Avenue - Most health-care dollars go to patients in their last six months of life. Many want to die at home, but typically do not. The technology that sustains us at the end presents enormous ethical challenges. Are there more cost-effective, less controversial interventions? Jeff Alderman, M.D., and Kevin Donovan, M.D., OU School of Community Medicine

Session 2, "Who Cares & How," Feb. 13, Peace Academy, 4620 S. Irvington - Peace of soul might mean choosing against seeing disease as a battleground? Is palliative care an acceptable response to the challenge of terminal illness? What is "terminal"? Many fear pulling the plug on those we love. Where

Workshop to address parental care

Planning long term care for aging parents can be a daunting task. Children are often faced with these decisions when parents are least able to make decisions for themselves. Our church is offering a series of workshops to help children of aging parents learn to observe, communicate, and develop skills and resources needed to make informed decisions on long term care.

Planning for our Parents will meet on Wednesdays, February 9th through March 2nd, at 5:30 p.m. in the Asbury Room.

B.A. member Dr. Mike Hopkins will teach observation skills, effective communication with aging parents, caring for the spiritual well being of all involved, effective care planning, emergency preparedness, and many other useful resources to help children prepare, plan and provide focus for long term care.

Dr. Hopkins has over thirty years experience as a professor, case manager, and consultant in health and human services with emphasis on elder care. He brings a wealth of experience and information that will benefit anyone facing issues of long term elder care.

Contact Rev. Paul Staat, 699-0133 or pdstaat@msn.com, or Paula Gradney, 699-0129 or paulagradney@bostonavenue.org.

Disciple, Invitation classes begin soon

Enrollment continues Sunday morning in Bishops' Hall for a new, thirty-four week Disciple Bible Study I class and two ten-week Invitation courses. All are welcome.

For those who want to study the whole Bible, Rev. Paul Staat and DeAnn McArtor will lead Disciple I, the foundation study for all other Disciple courses. Classes begin February 6th and meet on Sundays at 6:00 p.m. The course will meet spring and fall, with a summer break.

Those who want to study the Gospel of John may join Sheila Van Hersh and Darlyn Slater in a ten-week Invitation to John class starting February 28th. Classes will meet on Mondays at 10:00 a.m. in the church library.

Islamic leader to present Knippa Lecture

Ingrid Mattson

Ingrid Mattson, Immediate Past President of the Islamic Society of North America, is the guest presenter for the 24th Annual Knippa Interfaith/Ecumenical Lectures. Her presentation, entitled "What Is Islamic Law (Sharia) and For Whom Does It Apply?" begins this Sunday at 7:00 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church, 2331 East 5th Place.

Shuttle service is available from Kendall Whittier Elementary School, 5th Place and Atlanta Avenue. An informal reception will follow the presentation.

Born in Canada and raised as a Catholic, Dr. Mattson is the first

From the Pastor's Study

Mouzon Biggs, Jr.

Jeremiah's preaching and writing fill more paper in the Hebrew Scriptures than any other single author. The Book of Psalms is longer, but it includes the poetry of many different writers. Isaiah is slightly longer, but many scholars believe it is the work of three different writers. This Sunday's lection comes from the first chapter of Jeremiah's long work.

Rabbi Gunther Plaut has written, "Israel (the ten northern tribes) and its capitol Samaria had already been destroyed. Now Judah (the two southern tribes) and its capitol Jerusalem were in mortal danger.

"Jeremiah saw the problem as more spiritual than political. Jeremiah's call to be a prophet came in 625 B.C.E. while Josiah was king of Judah. Jeremiah was about fifteen or sixteen years old."

Dr. Ronald Clements adds, "Jeremiah sensed that he could never be anything other than a prophet. Even so, he protested to God his unreadiness for such a high responsibility - probably still a teenager.

"Assyrian power was waning after having destroyed the northern tribes. Some celebrated that loss of power, but Jeremiah was already focused on the rising power of Babylon."

My sermon will be, "DO YOU KNOW ME? I'VE KNOW YOU LONGER!"

Meet our newest members

Megan Bryant and Alex Roby joined last Sunday. They are engaged to be married.

Megan is completing a degree in dietetics at Oklahoma State University and Alex is a senior in the OSU Medical School. He has a 10-year-old daughter, Taylor.

Kiran Pace joined recently. She is participating in the nursing program at Tulsa Community College and is also a part-time instructor at T.C.C.

She earned her Ph.D. in Islamic studies at the University of Chicago in 1999, and is now Director of Islamic Chaplaincy and Professor at the Macdonald Center for Islamic Studies and Christian-Muslim Relations at Hartford Seminary in Hartford, Connecticut, the first Islamic chaplaincy program in the United States.

The series was endowed to honor the Rev. Dr. Clarence Knippa, former pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, on the 50th Anniversary of his ordination. Its purpose is to foster and promote understanding, respect and appreciation for the religion and ethical traditions and concerns of others.

Mark your calendar!

The Rev. Dr. Robert Long is coming to Boston Avenue to present the 2011 Barton Clinton Gordey Series, and you won't want to miss him! The series will begin Sunday morning, February 20, then continue Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. A reception will follow each evening presentation and child care is available.

Dr. Robert Long

Great Decisions begins Feb. 9

Our church will host a Great Decisions discussion group beginning Wednesday, February 9. It will continue through March 30, 1:30-3:30 in room J222. Don Rubottom will serve as discussion leader.

Great Decisions is sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association and Tulsa City County Friends of the Library. Eight topics are chosen for discussion to keep citizens informed about world events.

The 2011 topics include "Rebuilding Haiti," "National Security," "Horn of Africa," "Financial Crisis," "Germany ascendant," "Nonproliferation," "Crisis in the Caucasus," and "Global governance."

Study guides are available for $15 at the information desk starting January 27th. To join this group, please call coordinator Stan Teter, 307-8424 or Don Rubottom, 296-5561.

is God in this complicated equation? Barbara Bilderback, St. Francis Hospice; Ron Nofziger, Hillcrest Medical Center; Rabbi Anna Berroll, Temple Israel; Dr. Mindy McGarrah Sharp, Phillips Seminary; and Dr. Ziad Sous, Islamic Society

Session 3, "Meaning in the Shadows," Feb. 20, Congregation B'nai Emunah, 17th Street and Peoria - Every tradition defines the meaning of life, but also must deal with the meaning of death. Is death the end, or is there more to be encountered at the moment of death? How can we leave a legacy to benefit the general good? Can death be part of a beautiful and fulfilling life? Rev. Irv Cutter, St. John's Episcopal Church; Nuredin Giayash, Peace Academy; and Father Jack Gleason, Church of the Madalene.

Youth News!! . . .

Senior High news

Thank you to everyone who has worked so hard to prepare for YOUTH VESPERs this Sunday! Extra meetings, homework and lots of texting....I appreciate you and your willingness to take our service so seriously! It's going to be a great service, thanks to your leadership and all the extra youth involvement.

Thanks, Joel, for always going the extra mile to help our youth shine! The music will be great! and I will be hoping for a few broken cookies out of the 500 we are making that we can eat BEFORE the service!! :)

Our senior high are gearing up for our 30-hour famine retreat. If you have not signed up for this experiential retreat about world hunger - do it now! Brochures were mailed to your home and extras are available on the fourth floor.

We begin on Friday, Feb 4th and end on Saturday, Feb 5 at noon. If you have other responsibilities, we hope you will join us when you are able. Cost is $20.

We have started new classes this week! We even videotaped footage of our "Hope Lives" class getting a little hands-on experience in being a "Rich Young Ruler"... You know it's hard to do God's work if you so busy hanging on to all your STUFF!

If you missed last week- come on! We have a place for you!! Always room for one more! - Audra

6th, 7th and 8th Grade

This Sunday is Youth Vespers and it is a day to look forward to, that is for sure. I hope you have your calendar marked for this service at 6:00 p.m. Sunday in Community Hall. Many of you will be helping as leaders, but all youth are encouraged to come and participate. You will get cookies!!

The Confirmation Class has its first parent and youth Sunday this week in Jubilee Hall. Your refreshments will be served in Jubilee Hall so go directly there instead of the third floor.

We postponed our DTBA speaker series that was to begin last week. Instead, it will begin this Wednesday evening, 7:00 p.m. on the third floor. Join us for hot chocolate, Little Debbie's and conversation.

The annual mid-high girls Valentine dinner at my house is scheduled for Friday evening, February 4th. I will be cooking for you and hope each of you will be able to attend. Invitations are in the mail to you this week.

There is a common denominator in all of our events this week, besides growing in our faith.... It has to do with eating together. It's a good thing!!

Yours truly, Debbie

The Executive Committee will meet Thursday, February 3, at 9:30 a.m. in the Oxford Room.

The Oklahoma Conference of Churches' Day at the Legislature is Monday, February 14. This year's theme, "Feed My Sheep," focuses on key issues of poverty and education.

Keynote speakers: David Blatt, Director of the Oklahoma Policy Institute, will discuss "The State of Poverty in Oklahoma"; Janet Barresi, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will present "The State of Education in Oklahoma: Challenges and Opportunities"; and Maureen Kelley, Director of SKIL Program, Youth Services for Oklahoma County, will share a story from the Homeless Teen program in Oklahoma City.

Correction:

Last week's issue of The Word incorrectly stated that our senior high youth's recent Mexico mission trip was made possible by earnings from our Mission Endowment Fund. Actually that mission was generously funded by our Youth Stockholders.

Both mid high and senior high ministries greatly appreciate your support and look forward to this year's stock sale beginning May 1.

Our church's Mission Endowment funds a number of other local and international outreach projects, adult and intergenerational mission trips, and covenant relationships with missionaries.

Learning at a national gathering

Senior High Youth Director Audra Fogle will attend the United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministry's National Leaders' Gathering this week at Lake Junaluska in North Carolina. The meeting will help our conference camping ministry better meet the needs of youth and adults.

She serves as Program Chair for the Oklahoma Camps Board of Trustees.

During the gathering she will attend classes to better enable ongoing camping ministries in Oklahoma, but will also take outdoor ministry classes.

This summer she will serve as dean for two conference outdoor ministry events. Trek 1, hiking in the Rocky Mountain National Forest, will be held in mid June and Under The Stars Backpacking weekend will take place in Wilderness Canyon, behind Camp Canyon, in late September.

Audra Fogle and Kelsey Luks prepare for last year's conference senior high Trek.

College and Career

We will be meeting off-site this Sunday at Café Cubana. Meet at the blue couches and we'll carpool or caravan.

Cornerstone

Our next social is a Super Bowl party on February 6 at 5:00 p.m. It is being hosted by Ross and Kasi.

This Sunday we will have our last lesson taught by Linda Alegria.

Ephphatha

This Sunday our lesson will be, "The Right Not to Remain Silent."

We appreciate a great lesson from Mike Limas last week.

Heritage

Our class will serve at the Day Center for the Homeless on March 11. On February 11 we will have a movie night party at the church.

This Sunday Rev. Ken Tobler will teach.

Our sympathies go to Alan and Cathy Perlingiere on the death of Cathy's father.

Jim Roberts, Pat Stamper, and Jan Graham are celebrating birthdays.

We've enjoyed Ken Tobler's lessons the last three Sundays on "God is Christ-like."

It was nice to have Cre Lewis back with us.

Homebuilders

This Sunday Ruth Weston will conclude her series with "Methodists: the People of the Extreme Center."

Our sympathies are extended to Dolores Ritter and family in the passing of Bob. Keep Lloyd and Kathryn Parker in your prayers.

We thank Ruth Weston for a very interesting lesson on Baptists and Pentecostals.

Pat Hardin and Marita Morgan led our music. The Rubottoms provided the coffee and Wanda Franks the treats. We had 29 present.

Horizons

Our Valentine social is coming up on Saturday, February 12, at the Youngs'. Ladies, there is less than a month until our shopping extravaganza.

Shane and Marnie will be with us to talk about love languages this Sunday. The Thompsons will bring our treats.

We thank the Sr. High mission team for sharing their experiences. Thanks also to the Porters for our treats.

Thanks to all who helped make the Day Center for the Homeless meal a success.

Maranatha

There is a sign-up sheet going around for Dinners for 8.

We will have our Fifth Sunday Brunch this Sunday. Bring something to share.

We welcomed visitors Alexis and Elaine. We also welcomed new members Steve and Doris Dixon.

Keep Karen, Eric, Mark, Nancy, Larry and Alice in your prayers.

Thanks to Richard Wansley for teaching, Denny Meredith-Orr for the prayer, and Jeff and Julie Allen and Suzy and Denny Meredith-Orr for the refreshments.

New Covenant

Gerry Arnold presided and urged class members to record their email addresses if they prefer receiving class news by email instead of the phone tree.

Jacques Cunningham will be our teacher this week.

We welcomed visitor Joy Witt, and gave a special welcome to Marilyn Cox, Ruby Forsman, and Myra Critz.

Keep Wilma Gilliland in your prayers as she recuperates from surgery.

Happy birthday to Mildred.

Don Forsman taught on the woman who anointed Jesus with costly ointment.

Thanks to Joyce Byrne and Dorothy Nix for the music, Barbara Bond for the prayer, and Elizabeth Mercer for the treats. We had 40 present.

New Frontiers

Our Super Bowl party on February 6 will be at the Linn's home starting at 3:30.

Audra Fogle will talk about the youth mission trip.

Keep the Stricklands in your prayers.

Bryan Harrington spoke on the importance of nets to prevent malaria in Africa.

Pilgrimage

Our speaker this Sunday will be Rick Brinkley from the Better Business Bureau.

Thanks to Penny, Mike, Mark, and Darlyn for sharing their mission trip experience.

We welcomed the Kaufmans from Norman and Tracy Newton from Texas as visitors.

Both Deidra and Marilyn are healing well. Keep them in your prayers.

Roundtable

Mark your calendar for March 4 for our social event with a German festival theme.

This Sunday we will have a presentation by Betty Alsbrook, Ruth Ann Thompson, Dolores Ritter and Jeanne-Brosius Smith entitled, "Everything you wanted to know about UMW but are afraid to ask."

Margaret Hohmann and Jerry Shelton visited Sunday.

Last week Bill Tankersley returned to field more questions from class members.

Seek and Discover

Art McGrew concludes his series this Sunday. He wants us to bring our questions. He will be excited to answer them.

Last Sunday we filled all our chairs and had to "steal" a couple. Great attendance.

Rev. McGrew taught on the Sermon on the Mount.

Wesley Fellowship

Fifty-seven braved the cold to be present. Pearl Rhoads gave the 2010 financial report.

Joel Panciera needs Lenten devotionals for a booklet. John Crowell celebrated a birthday.

Judy Rowell had an interesting lesson on the mission trip to Nicaragua. Sunday Dr. Bill Tankersley will teach us.

Keep Orlene Blake, Sally Jeffrey and Virginia Woodard in your prayers.

Thanks to Carolyn Evans and Rollie Rhodes for the music, Patsy Byrd for the devotional, and Trudy Plowman for leading our class Sunday. Blessings.

Apples for Burroughs due soon

B.A. members have been very generous in "picking" apples like those shown here in order to fulfill the teacher's request written on each apple. All who took an apple are now asked to return their apple with the requested donation so that they can be delivered to the school in the next week or two. They can be left at the information desk or with Rev. EvaMarie Campbell.

These donations greatly aid teachers who have no other way to provide items for their classes.
