From the Pastor's Study

Mouzon Biggs, Jr.

Thank you, all of you who made Sunday another special day at Boston Avenue Church. Our parking lots had been plowed and were dry. Our sidewalks had been shoveled, treated, and were dry.

Teachers, choirs, bell ringers, puppeteers, liturgical dancers and instrumentalists were scrambling to fill vacancies caused by neighborhood streets still clogged with snow and packed ice.

It was a long, inspiring day from our 8:30 worship, Sunday School, 11:00 worship, and Faith Academy, to our youth-led Vespers and Knippa Interfaith presenter, Russian Orthodox Rev. Dr. Thomas Hopko.

Our television audience was huge. Sunday morning golfers were not golfing, soccer leagues were not playing, many churches were not gathering - and Channel 8 helped us reach out to all of them with our worship service!

Next Sunday's lection comes from that same first chapter of Mark's Gospel. I am calling this week's sermon, "EVERYBODY'S SICK SOMETIME, BUT SOME MORE THAN OTHERS!"

Honor a child, build a library

Above, Katie and Murphy Mills show off books that have been donated to the Little Disciples' Library in their honor by their parents, Dale and Amy Mills. A word of thanks.....

Dear Friends,

In his letter to the Christian community in Rome, the Apostle Paul appeals to the faithful to fulfill God's call upon their lives, saying, "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God - what is good and acceptable and perfect." (Romans 12:2) In that statement Paul makes it clear that, as Christians, we are to follow Christ's teaching, not to be controlled by the influences of our culture.

As you know, we live in a culture that relentlessly tells us to look only to our own interest. Coupled with that has been the economic crisis that has brought serious financial stress for many. Yet, you are refusing to conform to the influences of our culture that urge us to be selfish and self-serving. Your faithful participation in the mission and ministry of The United Methodist Church through paying apportionments powerfully states that the members of your church are striving to do that which is good and acceptable and perfect in God's eyes. Through your support of connectional ministries and missions you are fulfilling Jesus' expectations that his disciples will feed the hungry, provide living water for those who are spiritually thirsty, clothe the naked, care for the sick, and visit the imprisoned.

Thank you for living what you say you believe and for your generous support of your Church. By not conforming to the world, by doing that which is good and acceptable and perfect, you are touching lives with Christ's love and grace, fulfilling the will of God.

Christ's peace,

Rev. Michael D. Chaffin, Tulsa District Superintendent

Senior High News

Way to go YOUTH! Thank you for a meaningful worship service with a kick in the pants to live my faith rather than try and live a faithful life from the comforts of my couch! (I have not been so fortunate as to find entire bags of skittles in the cushions of my sofa- more like a squished bit with a little dog hair!)

I appreciate all the hard work that went into being prepared for the service and the support you showed by your attendance.

This Wednesday, February 10th, we will be back home for DTBA! Meet at 7:30 in room 420. Can't wait to have a chance to be together!

Next Sunday, February 14th, our youth team will be leading a fun Sunday School lesson based on Valentine's Day. Immediately following the 11:00 service we will meet in the parlor with the Wesley Fellowship Sunday School class, then off to lunch, a bit o' mission fun, then back to church by 3:00. Back in plenty of time if you have a hot date that evening!! It's a great way to share the LOVE of Christ in a fun way on Valentine's Day!

Make sure and sign up if you are planning to see Curtains in OKC on Saturday, February 20. Sign ups have started on the fourth floor. Look for posters with more information.

Another service opportunity....OCU Student Day on March 6. Space is limited to 10 students.
